The October issue of Computer Active, out on sale!

Dear associates,

In the October issue of Computer Active, coming out today, Tuesday, October 4:

- Antivirus software is necessary for your computer's safety, but are you sure you are not paying much more than you really need? We compare the most popular programs.
- Why pay for applications you can easily find for free in the Web? We suggest the top 30 free applications for you to download.
- Can't find what you are looking for in the Web? We present you all methods and tricks, so as to always carry out successful searches.
- We are showing you where exactly to look in the Net, in order for you to learn foreign languages or enhance your linguistic skills.
- In the second part of the feature on PaintShop Pro we are showing you how to utilize your talent in "painting", in order to create with your own personal style.

Supplement "Back to School":

Computer: The best companion of both pupils and students.

Moreover, read in this issue:

Our permanent columns, just like every month, with up-to-date reviews in New Products, 30 pages with useful advice and tips in the Step-by-Step section, the best games in the Games section, as well as October's hottest new mobile phone reviews.

+OFFER!

A card with 5 hours of FREE talking time in the HOL eVoice service for local and long-distance calls both to cable and mobile phones.

Thank you for your support!
